

FLIGHT OF FASHION

ROCK ON IN ROCK BOTTOMS

Now you can help the environment, look smashing and feel like a rock star, all at the same time. Inspired by the song titles and lyrics of rock classics, Rockbottoms is a line of loungewear and intimate apparel, crafted from a bamboo fabric that is naturally quick drying, antibacterial and hypo-allergenic. Men and women can express themselves with rock-n-roll quotes and images while keeping their cool in these comfy creations. The collection includes six styles for women, featuring pants, thongs, and shorts; and three different kinds of boxers for men. Rockbottoms start at $49 per set for women; men's boxers start at $19. Available at www.myrockbottoms.com.

—Joanna Tallet

STAYING PUT

When you're traveling on business, it's not always easy to arrive looking fresh and unrumpled, but the Collar Card can help your shirt look its best. This innovative new product—the world's first credit card-sized collar stay holder—was developed by a traveling businessman who was tired of forgetting his collar stays when on the road. The handy device contains four pop-out collar stays and fits right into your wallet's credit card slot. Just don't forget your wallet now!

[www.collarcard.com]

—Lisa Simundson

packing it all in

As frequent female fliers know, the key to making your life easier and your trip more enjoyable starts with what you put into your suitcase. In the new age of air travel, dragging bulky bags through heightened security screenings just isn't practical, so making smart fashion choices different looks. In addition, a simple dress in a durable fabric—like textured tweed—is a great all-in-one outfit that

